

Joint Acquisition Statement

DGS technical Services, Inc. today announced the acquisition of assets, liabilities and employees of eCAD Systems LLC, a Michigan based company. eCADsystems, LLC. Specializes in Mechanical & Structural Engineering services and has a well established partner network.

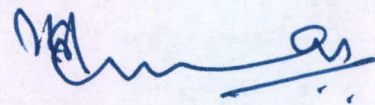

DGSTS is proud to have the joining forces to provide enhanced services that were not formerly available. By combining our strengths, we are not only creating one of the industry's leading service providers, we are also enhancing a team of talented and skilled professionals to serve our customers.

By working together, we will be able to reduce costs and improve our operations. This in turn will enable us to provide more valuable service and support to our customers.

The acquisition is initiated on December 17th, 2009. Both the companies would cooperate to complete and finalize the acquisition formalities in the next 90 days.
